AXMINSTER Tourist Information Centre (TIC) is staying put and is fully geared up for the busy summer season despite recent uncertainty.

That was the defiant message after TIC staff and volunteers held a public meeting to rally the troops.

As previously reported, Axminster Chamber of Commerce had announced it would cease running the TIC after doing so for about ten years.

Fears for the future of the facility immediately arose, but staff and volunteers worked hard to set up their own group to take over and assume responsibility.

A public meeting on Tuesday April 8th attracted about 50 people.

Former TIC manager and current volunteer Sarah Crook said: "The Senior Citizens' centre was full of supporters who were concerned for the future of the TIC.

"Following a unanimous vote in favour of keeping the TIC open, a steering committee was elected – Sarah Crook (chairman), Joy Raymond (vice-chairman), Jack Neal (secretary), Shane Morgan (treasurer).

"Others were invited to join and Ian Crawford, David Starr, Kate Marshall and Jenny Fells volunteered.

"The next open meeting was fixed for May 8th at 6.30pm at the Senior Citizens' Centre."

The TIC will remain in its present office as tenants of Axminster Town Council until the planned move to the emerging heritage centre, possibly in about three to five years' time. Mrs Crook said: "It has always been envisaged that TIC would move within the heritage centre as an independent organisation.

"Despite all the uncertainty of the past weeks, the TIC is ready for the coming season.

"The accommodation providers have received their information packs, leaflets have been exchanged and the office is open longer hours.

Financial help

"The staffing will remain the same with Jill Ruddick as manager and Anne Seward as part-time staff and two volunteers.

"The TIC is very grateful to have received some financial help from Axminster Town Council and a generous donation from Axminster Care Service.

"These donations together with money raised by fundraising activities, from ticket sales commission and souvenir sales will allow the TIC to stay open until the winter months.

"However, Shane Morgan and Duncan Colvin are planning Axminster Beer Festival for June 28th and, weather permitting, this event should finance the TIC for a further six months."

Imminent fundraisers are lined up in the shape of a

My staff doing their bit

IT'S BEEN a busy but lucrative weekend for Pulman's View staff.

On Saturday sales girl Jenna Wellman, who lives in Axminster, threw herself out of an aircraft 15,000 feet above Dunkeswell aerodrome to raise around £1,000 for our adopted charity, Water Survival Box, in a sponsored tandem parachute jump.

She was meant to have done it the previous week but the former war-time aerodrome was fogged bound.

I went up to Dunkeswell on Saturday morning to support Jenna and to take a few photos. It was a beautiful sunny morning but by the time it was her turn to jump the skies had clouded over.

Jenna is one of those effervescent young people who is up for most things and was quick to volunteer when I asked our young staff who wanted to jump out of an aeroplane for our charity.

She finally got to jump by which time I was on my way to Huish Park to see Yeovil play Bournemouth.

She text me to say it was "an amazing" experience. Needless to say, her family and all at Pulman's View are really proud of her.

On Sunday it was the turn of my deputy editor James Coles and his brother Richard to do their bit for our charity. I shot over to Seaton early on to see them off on a 50-plus mile sponsored walk across the western peninsular, finishing at Watchet at around 5 pm last evening (Monday), boosting the total we have raised for Water Survival Box to nearly £5,000.

We are aiming to raise £10,000 in two years but as we only started five months ago I think we will reach this sum this year and in year two hopefully we can add a few more thousands.

So what daring feat am I planning to do, I hear you say? Abseil down The Minster tower perhaps? Sit in a bath of baked beans in Tesco for 12 hours? Set a new record for walking backwards along Lyme Regis seafront?

I've carefully considered all such options but decided on cycling the last leg of a sponsored relay to all 15 towns in East Devon, West Dorset and South Somerset where we have newspapers. I shall be doing the last bit from Hunters Lodge to Lyme – downhill all the way, a bit like my career!

HONITON

Council in bid to revive market

HONITON Town Council is poised to take over control of the Honiton Street Market, following a review of its management structure.

The market charter is still owned by the council but a private company currently oversees the day-to-day running of the market.

And following a three-year period of steady decline in trade, the increasing cost of organising the market has caused the company directors to reconsider its future.

Market manager Tony McCollum reported that traders had moved on to other markets or given up altogether because they could not make a living in Honiton.

He said the recent bad weather had had a "major impact" on the market – with lost days and fewer traders attending – as well as the recession, which continues to affect visitor numbers.

Mr McCollum also pointed to the loss of staff, which has restricted work to promote the market, and a need for equipment to be replaced.

He told Pulman's View: "It has been a real struggle and we are no longer capable of running the business – going private has actually cost us money.

"To return to the way it was before would be a positive step. We have actually had six traders come forward to join the market in the last week and if the weather improves, I am confident we will bounce back again big-time.

"But we need people to support it – without them it will not survive."

Councillors were last night (Monday) due to vote on retaking control of the market – a decision that could help to revive its fortunes.

COLYTON

Funding lost for Stop Line Way

FUNDING for the proposed Stop Line Way cycle route through Colyford has been withdrawn to cover costs of flood relief in the Somerset Levels.

The Burgesses of the Ancient Borough of Colyford recently held a special meeting to discuss the progress of the Stop Line Way project, where it was reported that expected funding from the Department of Transport had been diverted to assist those affected by the recent serious flooding on the Somerset Levels.

The Department of Transport was expected to donate £300,000 towards the cycle route through Colyford, which will form part of the 70-mile Stop Line Way route from Seaton to Weston-super-Mare.

The funding withdrawal is the latest set back in a long battle to get the section of the route established through Colyford.

SEATON

Charity closes after ten years

A LOCAL charity, which has raised around £40,000 for various causes in the Seaton area, has finally closed after a decade of dedicated work in service to the community.

Seaton Phoenix was set up in 2004 and for nearly ten years has played a vital role in supporting local groups and organisations.

But committee members were forced into closing the charity after the amount of work became too great for its small committee to manage.

Fundraising ended with a bingo event in December and the charity was officially closed at the end of March, but friends and members of the local community have paid tribute to the charity's valuable work over the years.

In a letter to members, Barbara Dearden-Potter (BEM), a founding member of the charity and its former secretary, said: "Over the past ten years Seaton Phoenix has run sales of all kinds, starting with a blanket on the grass at Rousdon Car Boot Sales, to organising the Street Fairs on the Esplanade every July.

"The marvellous people of this district have contributed in various ways to enable the charity to donate around £40,000 to groups and individuals in Seaton, Beer, Axmouth and Colyford since we began our work in 2004."

Tiddles and Holly are almost identical and need to stay together. They are 8 months old and ready for a "forever" family.

OTTERY

FIVE extra police officers are to be stationed in Ottery St Mary from June, following a force-wide restructure announced this week by Devon and Cornwall Police.

The changes will provide a boost to the town's police team, bringing the total number of officers based in the town to seven, in addition to its three Police Community Support Officers (PCSOs).

Some of the officers who currently operate in the town are based in Honiton and then allocated to the Ottery area.

But the five additional Police Constables will be stationed in Ottery within the next few months.

Police Sergeant Paul Roberts announced the changes at the April town council meeting last week.

"It is a positive development for everyone," he said.

Health bosses to meet councillors to discuss the future of hospitals

by Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

HEALTH bosses have agreed to meet Axminster and Seaton town councillors to discuss issues relating to hospitals in the towns.

Eastern Locality of Northern, Eastern and Western Devon Clinical Commissioning Group (NEW CCG) have already announced that the 10 remaining in-patient beds at Axminster Hospital are under review.

The announcement caused a great deal of concern and Axminster-based GPs "deplored the lack of consultation".

In a statement issued on Monday April 14th, NEW CCG head of commissioning Tamara Powderley said private talks will be held with relevant councillors before a public summit is arranged.

She explained: "We have accepted an invitation by the Mayor of Axminster to an all-parish council meeting at the end of April to discuss how we can formally engage with the local population about the future of healthcare in their community.

"We want to make sure that local people and organisations are involved in any decisions about healthcare developments and we held health summits in Seaton and Axminster in July and August 2013 respectively.

"Two of the local clinical commissioning GPs have met representatives from Axminster Town Council on two occasions since Christmas.

"Following the all-parish council meeting we hope to organise a public meeting to discuss the issues relating to the communities of Axminster and Seaton, again offering local people and organisations an opportunity to have their say."

Mrs Crook added: The TIC has been very grateful for the support of the people of Axminster and district.

"Over 800 people signed a petition to save the TIC and the office received many letters of support.

"To continue that support you can now become a friend of the TIC for £6.

"This will entitle you to a vote at the AGM and also a free tea party to be held at Axminster Arts Cafe in the summer.

"Until then, it is very much business as usual. The TIC is ready to give a warm welcome to all visitors and help them to make the most of their visit to Axminster and the surrounding area.

Big Breakfast raises £1,200 for flood victims

A TOTAL of £1,223 was raised during Axminster Young Farmers' Club's big breakfast.

The breakfast was held in Axminster Guildhall in aid of flood-affected farmers on Somerset Levels.

Club member Alice Gay said: "We raised £1,223 for The Royal Agricultural Benevolent Institution (RABI), specifically going to Somerset area.

"We served over 230 breakfasts and would like to thank Pattemores, Tesco, Washingpool Farm Shop and Colyton Butchers as well as many local families for their very kind donations.

"Also thanks to everyone for supporting us."

Housing appeals dismissed after inquiry

By Jack Dixon
jack@pemedia.co.uk

CAMPAIGNERS against housing development in Feniton were celebrating this week, after a government planning inspector dismissed two of the three appeals considered during the recent "super inquiry".

Plans for a combined total of more than 200 new houses across two developments were thrown out altogether, with only the application for 32 homes at Acland Park - submitted by Feniton Park Ltd. - given the go ahead.

The public inquiry ran for 11 days in January and since its completion, residents had been waiting anxiously for a verdict to be reached.

But the final decision has been welcomed by campaigners, hundreds of whom took to the streets during the inquiry to march in protest at the proposals.

East Devon District Councillor for Feniton and Buckerell Susie Bond said residents were "ecstatic" at the news.

She said: "This is truly an excellent day for Feniton and the residents who fought so hard to prevent unfettered development on open countryside.

"There was almost universal anger in the village at the way Feniton was being bullied by developers who flooded the village with planning application after planning application in an effort to change the character of the village entirely.

"It just goes to show what Feniton residents can do when they all get together in a common cause and the village will be a better place for the decision."

All three applications were initially rejected by East Devon District Council's planning committee before being appealed by the developers.

And residents were concerned the village infrastructure would not be able to cope with such a substantial increase in size.

But in her report, Jessica Graham, the planning inspector, said the applications by Strategic Land Partnerships to build 120 or 59 houses on land west of Ottery Road, and Wainhomes, to build 83 houses to the south of Station Road, would have caused "harm" to the community.

The adverse impacts of both applications "significantly and demonstrably outweighed the benefits" and a lack of shops and services in the village would have proved unsustainable for development, the report ruled.

The inspector also gave weight to the loss of agricultural land and claims made by Feniton Parish Council Chairman Martyn Smith that the developments could damage community cohesion.

Following the announcement, the Parish Council issued a statement thanking all those who had supported them during the appeal process, either by donating money to the campaign or by contributing evidence submitted at the inquiry.

The decision was also welcomed as a "victory for common sense" by Deputy Leader of East Devon District Council Andrew Moulding.

He said: "This appeal decision totally vindicates our decision to defend Feniton against wholesale development. It also puts the lie to the contention by some scaremongers that East Devon is open to a planning free-for-all.

"I want to thank my planning officers and our legal team for the hard work they put in and I note the inspector's approval of our decision to move the venue for the inquiry to a larger building.

"I also want to give credit where it is due to Feniton Parish Council and to the residents who showed resilience and determination in fighting for their village. This victory is an example of what we can achieve when we are all pulling in the same direction."

A chance to share your views on NHS

THE NHS budget is being cut all the time; therefore it is more important than ever that we have the local NHS services we need.

Healthwatch Devon and the Citizens Advice Bureau are now working together to give people somewhere to voice their opinions about the services the NHS provides.

One of our main aims is to help you get the best out of your local health and social care. Healthwatch will give people a powerful voice locally and nationally. People rarely speak up about their experiences of health and social care, often because they feel they cannot make a difference. But Healthwatch Devon and the CAB believes every voice counts when it comes to shaping the future of health and social care.

Your local CAB can listen, advise, point people in the right direction and handle any concerns or issues people experience. It will also help provide information about care choices and assist people with navigating the increasingly complex health and social care system.

At a local level, Healthwatch Devon and the CAB will work to help local people to influence the delivery and design of local services, whether that is improving health and social care services today or helping to shape them for tomorrow.

We're independent, transparent, accountable – and we're powerful! We have the strength of the law and the national influence of Healthwatch England behind us. We'll make service providers answerable to you and help turn any bad practice into good practice. So 'speak up' everyone – let's create change together.

We want to hear from anybody that has a story to tell, worry or concern or needs information on any healthcare issue.

Contact us at your local East Devon Citizens Advice Bureau in Honiton, Exmouth, Seaton, Sidmouth, Ottery St Mary and Axminster or email edcab@cabnet.org.uk. Alternatively call our Advice Line Tel 08444 111 444.

Top River Cottage cookery lessons for Musbury pupils

AS part of a topic on 'Magical Worlds', the children of Musbury Primary School looked at the magic of cooking when visiting River Cottage HQ.

Staff helped the children to make their own pizzas from scratch and baked in the outdoor pizza oven.

Head of Musbury Primary School, John Montgomery, explained: "We were impressed by their welcome and expertise. The facilities were great and the demonstration kitchen is very well resourced.

"It is important to create memories that last for the children and the staff at River Cottage certainly made this a reality."

Mr Montgomery was also pleased to report that numbers are rising at the school, which was threatened by closure last year. The number of pupils attending is now 15.

Piano success for Axe Valley student

AXE Valley Community College Year 13 student Marcus Wood scored three marks off a distinction for his Grade 8 piano exam.

This was the first time he had taken the exam and he is extremely pleased with the result.

Marcus started playing when he was five and a half and started taking exams when he was seven.

He took a few years off from taking classical grades and played jazz and wrote music before taking more exams in Year 11.

Jazz is still his favourite but he loves to just play and improvise.

He is looking into taking his love of music further and studying his music grades to diploma level.

Marcus said: "I am very pleased that all the hours of practise have paid off.

"Music is my love and I will never stop playing."

■ WAY BACK WHEN: The photo found by Mrs Spiller

Was this your wedding?

AN Axminster resident is keen to reunite a photographic negative with its rightful owner.

Sue Spiller found the negative, which contains an image of a wedding party taken decades ago.

She said: "I found it on the afternoon of Thursday, March 27th close to the bus stop outside Axminster Hospital.It appears to be an oldish negative and is scratched, but a friend has printed it for me.

"As you see, it is of a wedding group, and I would guess it dates from the late 1950s or early 1960s.

"At first glance I thought the group was standing outside of Axminster Guildhall but on looking at it further, I do not think this is the case.

"It must be a treasured possession of someone out there, and if we can re-unite the negative with the owner that would be brilliant."

Mrs Spiller can be contacted on 01297 32260.

News briefs

Valuation service comes to town

VALUERS from Duke's Auctioneers will be visiting Axminster on Tuesday April 22nd to provide a free auction valuation service.

The Dorchester-based firm will be in the Axminster offices of Beviss and Beckingsale and are welcoming anyone who is curious about the value of their antiques and collectables to come forward.

Valuations for auction will be provided free of charge in the Silver Street offices and no appointment is necessary.

The event will run from 10am until 1pm.

For more information, call 01305 265080 or visit www.dukes-auctions.com or www.bevissandbeckingsale.co.uk.

Top maths team

AXE Valley Community College's team registered a top 20 finish in the UK Maths Trust Team Challenge (Devon), held in Exmouth.

Rachel Fell of the college's maths department said: "The students had to work together to solve a range of maths problems, complete a cross-number and take part in a maths relay race.

"They finished within the top 20 schools in Devon – a fantastic achievement and a great day for all four students."

The team consisted of Sam Slade, Harry Herbert, Stuart Johnson and Layla James.

Churchill Retirement Living makes moving home a little bit easier!

For many retirees looking to move to a smaller, more manageable property the thought of moving from the family home can be a difficult task to face both physically and emotionally. There are always lots of difficult decisions to be made about what to take to the new home and what to pass on to family or charities.

Churchill Retirement Living understands these concerns and has recently introduced a new service for its Customers designed to help alleviate some of this stress and strain. Working with The Senior Move Partnership they can help with as much or as little is required, supporting their Customers all the way through to unpacking.

One Owner who has already benefitted from this service is Mr Maguire (pictured above), who recently moved from a three-bedroom bungalow, his home for more than 50 years, to a one-bedroom apartment.

With no immediate family close at hand Mr Maguire was slightly overwhelmed as to how he would make this move possible. Unable to physically manage all the tasks of downsizing himself he was offered the services of The Senior Move Partnership, who discussed his concerns with him and set a plan of action to assist with his relocation.

Over the course of the following few weeks they visited Mr Maguire and assisted him with downsizing his clothes, books collection, kitchen cupboards as well as discussing the furniture items no longer required and possessions that would go to house clearance and auction. Quotes were obtained for the removal of unwanted items, charity drops were carried out and they also helped on moving-in day.

This new service is part of Churchill's Move for Free* package which also includes help with Estate Agent's and legal fees, a free fully inclusive removals package, paid stamp duty and a paid Energy Performance Certificate (EPC). For further information, please call 01404 45916 or visit Churchill Retirement Living's development Holyshute Lodge on Langford Road in Honiton. BT apologises for lack of service for a month

anders@tindlenews.co.uk

BUSINESS owners and residents near Axminster have slammed BT after being left without a landline and internet connection for almost a month.

BT said about a dozen customers were affected, and has said "sorry" for the inconvenience.

Locals have disputed the figure and believe up to 30 customers may have been affected.

The problem started when a car collided with a telegraph pole near the Musbury Road and A35 junction on March 4th.

As a result of the crash and damage to the pole, a number of properties lost their landline and internet connection.

Normal service was eventually restored on March 27th, but customers were extremely frustrated.

Dick Bessant, who runs Little trill Cottages, was one of them.

He was unable to take bookings online and by landline phone, and said: "The cottages are my only income.

"BT has been incredibly inefficient and it has been hugely frustrating."

River Cottage HQ was also hit, and head of operations Simon Dodd said during the cut off: "It has been devastating to our business and BT doesn't seem to care.

Satellite back-up

"Nothing seems to be happening.

"It is lucky we have satellite back-up for the broadband, otherwise we would have been cut off from the world."

He also said they managed to divert calls to a mobile, but they have six lines coming in and the diversion could only handle one call at a time.

Karen Nicholson, who lives between Musbury and Trill, is equally upset.

Speaking to Pulman's View during the last week of the cut off, she said: "I can drive to use the internet elsewhere, but others are not so fortunate.

"For example, I have a vulnerable neighbour who relies on the phone."

But her main complaint is lack of information, and she said: "All I want is honesty and regular updates."

In a statement issued on March 21st, a BT spokesperson said: "We are sorry for the delay.

"This is a complex repair involving the installation of a new pole, overhead cable and use of temporary traffic lights.

"Specialist equipment is needed. We are working with the highways authority to carry out the work as soon as possible.

"Unfortunately, it has not been possible to provide a temporary service for customers.

"About a dozen customers have reported a fault."

"Temporary traffic lights are booked for two days – March 26th and 27th."

In a further statement issued on March 28th, he added: "Work has been completed and customers should be back in service."

Music success for St Mary's

St MARY'S Catholic School Choir triumphed in the Devon and Exeter Performing Arts Festival.

The Axminster school choir performed two songs, Hashivenu and I Feel the Spirit.

Waiting nervously for the results, it was a nail-biting moment for the pupils before judges announced the verdict. It was a great achievement for St Mary's as it was the second year in a row of winning.

Only a few days later, St Mary's Catholic Primary School Wind Band performed at the Devon and Exeter Performing Arts Festival.

The band was awarded a commendation for its performance, and The Chiverstone Music Shield for best performance in the wind and brass ensemble section.

Busking for Tom's skatepark

MUSICIANS from the open mic sessions at Axminster Inn turned to busking in Trinity Square on Thursday, April 3rd.

They did so to raise funds for Axminster Skatepark Fund, set up in memory of Axminster youngster Tom Chubb, who died in a car accident in 2012.

The aim is to raise enough money to improve and extend the current skate park at Cloakham Lawn Sports Centre.The photo shows a set featuring Carly Perrin, town crier Nick Goodwin and Gerry Waugh (Kayleigh Grimshaw also participated).

More information about the skatepark project is available on the Axminster Skatepark Fund Facebook page .

Raising funds for Marie Curie

A MARIE Curie Cancer Care fundraiser was held in Church Rooms, Axminster, on Thursday March 27th.

Refreshments were served and visitors had an opportunity to hear about the charity's work.

Organiser Sandy Sinclair said: "The weather assisted an improvement on last year, thanks to the generosity of Axminster and the hard work of volunteers.

"Contributions to the raffle were received from River Cottage, Punch and Judy Bakery, The Co-op and Violet Field, as well as valuable private gifts of books, bric-a-brac and cakes – all leading to a total of £211.57."

He also said that more volunteers would be very welcome. Anyone interested in joining can call him on 01297 33655.

The photo shows some of the volunteers who made sure the event ran smoothly.

Artist inspires next generation

IT HAS been revealed that Axminster artist Michael Morgan, who died earlier this year, inspired and encouraged a fellow artist to develop her career.

Carolyn Tyrer, who lived in North Molton and regularly visits Devon, now shows her work in The Marine House and Steam Gallery in Beer.

"I am over the moon at this success, which is very much down to Michael's encouragement," says Carolyn, a keen sailor.

"Since being taken on by Steam I have exhibited with them at the Affordable Art Fair in Battersea and my work is now exhibited in Beer."

With Michael's help Carolyn has become well-known for her delightful, quirky paintings of the British Isles which are widely collected.

Seaton Lions boost for Marie Curie campaign

SEATON and District Lions Club recently held a collection in the foyer of the Seaton Tesco store as part of this years Marie Curie Great Daffodil Appeal.

During the day the Seaton and District Lions team collected a magnificent £438.50 from the generous shoppers at the Seaton store.

At the April meeting of the Lions, Seaton & District Lions Club presented Sandy Sinclair who represented the Marie Curie Cancer Care charity, with a cheque for £438.50 for the money that had been donated.

South West ringers conference a sellout

MORE than 90 ornithologists attended the South West Ringers' s onference in Seaton Town Hall earlier this month.

Mike Tyler, leader of the host Axe Estuary Ringing Group, said: "It was considered to be of a great success with delegates attending from over the South West from Gloucestershire to Cornwall.

"Mike Tyler welcomed delegates to Seaton and Councillor Graham Godbeer, East Devon District Council chairman, formerly opened the conference.

Delegates listened to speakers presenting topical papers on the shelduck on the Axe Estuary, black-tailed godwits project, Manx shearwaters on Lundy, monitoring of pied flycatchers on Dartmoor, tree sparrows in Wiltshire and the hatching of a new bird ringing group in West Cornwall.

Later in the day delegates were shown round the Axe Estuary Wetlands..

Little stars shine at dance class spring performance

JM DanceFit Seaton Little Starz

ZUMBA groups from primary schools in Sidmouth, Seaton and Newton Poppleford performed during JM DanceFit's spring term finale.

All members of the Little and Junior Starz groups were awarded well-deserved performance certificates.

The classes will continue to be held at the schools by zumba instructor Johanna Morgan, who said: "I am absolutely delighted that the children's zumba classes continue to be a success at the local primary schools.

"I was so very proud of both the little and junior starz end of spring term performances, all of which were well received by very enthusiastic audiences."

How DO you brush a cats teeth? Simple, feed new Oscar for cats!

OSCAR for Cats adult foods now have the benefit of StayClean oral care. StayClean is a very fine powdered form of Vitamin C which acts like a mouthwash and is proven to significantly reduce plaque and tartar formation and help support healthy gums. By 7 months of age your cat will have all their adult teeth - without proper dental care over 70% of cats start to show signs of oral disease by age 3.

After a 28 day clinical trial cats eating food with StayClean had 27% less plaque and 14% less tartar than those fed a diet without StayClean.

At Oscar we understand how discerning cats can be – that's why all our cat foods are specially packed to ensure they stay as fresh as the day they were made.

Available in a choice of flavours – Oscar cat foods are made with natural ingredients, we do not use any artificial colourings, flavourings or derivatives – providing a fully balanced complete food. All Oscar cat foods contain prebiotics for a healthy gut and are formulated to help reduce the risk of urinary stones. For senior cats our Adult Care Chicken also has the added benefit of glucosamine for joint health and cranberry – a natural way to reduce urinary tract infections.

FUN in the kitchen – youngsters get to grips with baking cakes

Cooking with Little Sids

IF your kids enjoy cooking then why not bring them along to Little Sid's Cookery Club?

During the school holidays, every parent knows how difficult it can be to get children away from the TV screen or latest computer game. Learning how to cook tasty food is one way of getting children to do something creative.

Little Sid's Cookery Club is run by Denise Griffiths during the school holidays and half-terms, and on Saturday, April 11th St Theresa's Hall was a hive of activity as children donned their chef's hats and got baking.

"I started it so that kids can learn to cook," said Denise, "and not just cupcakes and biscuits – with the older age group this afternoon we're doing home-made fishcakes, potato wedges and an Easter lemon cake sponge.

"I try to make the recipes a bit more sophisticated for the older children – just enough to show them that they can make meals with only a little guidance from me.

"The younger group is aged two to seven years old and it's a great place for youngsters and mums to meet.

"It can also help with fussy eaters. When they see their meals come together, I think they're more likely to want to eat it – it can give them the satisfaction of making it themselves."

Denise added: "With the older kids (eight-11 years), we make the sponge cake first and while that's cooling they can make the fishcakes - getting them to make their own tea and then they can ice the cake so that they've got something to take home with them."

Denise can be contacted on 01395 516347 or more information can be found at www.littlesidscookeryclub.co.uk

Police officers honoured for bravery

By Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

POLICE officers have been awarded for roles they played during incidents in Sidmouth and Seaton last year - one of them registering a remarkable double.

PC Russell Knill, PC Darius Norton, PC Rhys Thomas, DC Michael Laybourne, PS Simon Thomson and PS Stuart White all received the Devon Commander Commendation for saving a life

They all sprung into action on September 26th last year when a suicidal woman was located on the wrong side of a safety fence, dangerously close to the cliff edge, above Jacob's Ladder beach in Sidmouth.

Despite having a genuine fear of heights, PC Thomas spent a considerable amount of time trying to dissuade, her from doing anything that may cause her harm.

The citation said: "PS White, PS Thomson and DC Laybourne were also present at the scene.

"Despite negotiation attempts, the woman made the decision to jump and fell a considerable distance down the cliff.

"PCs Knill and Norton carried out the search for her and found her lying on a ledge, unconscious and seriously injured.

"The officers climbed the unstable cliff face to reach the woman and assisted the coastguard helicopter crew in airlifting her to safety."

PC Norton was also presented with the Commander Certificate for "exceptional professionalism" when attending a fire in Cross Street, Seaton, on December 8th last year.

Five flats had to be evacuated and PC Norton's citation said: "The incident attracted a huge amount of attention, requiring him to move members of the public to safety.

"Amid this, he expertly obtained details from victims and witnesses at the scene to quickly identify a potential offender who was later arrested.

"A number of flats had not been checked for occupants, but the fire service was using all resources to control a gas main which was alight.

"PC Norton entered the building, working his way through the flats to ensure evacuation and safety of its occupants.

"On getting to the top landing, the smoke was too dense for him to safely go any further.

"At this point, he withdrew and informed the fire service who was able to enter with breathing equipment.

"PC Norton, continued with the command of the scene and remained on duty until the conclusion of the incident.

"He went beyond what was expected of him to ensure all people were safely evacuated."

The awards were presented by Chief Superintendent Paul Davies (commander for Devon) and Superintendent Jim Gale (commander for Exeter, East and Mid Devon) in Exeter Guildhall on Wednesday, April 2nd.

Superintendent Jim Gale said: "I am extremely proud of the fantastic work carried out every day by police officers, special constables and PCSOs.

"These awards not only recognise the bravery, commitment and dedication of our staff, and our overriding purpose of keeping people and communities safe, but also the outstanding courage of members of the public."

Pulman's View from the churches

With NIGEL SPELLER

THE churches of Kilmington village recently united again for a special event.

This time it was the Palm Sunday service with a donkey leading a procession of people from the Anglican and Baptist congregations through the village to conclude with a service in St Giles. It commemorates how Jesus rode into Jerusalem on a donkey prior to his death and resurrection.

But the Kilmingtonians were not just walking, they were praying for the community, the homes, the farms, the businesses, the pre-school, the school and Koppers Nursing Home. They recognise the importance of community and not only involve themselves in it, but are prepared to take to the streets to pray for it.

Ottery St Mary prepares for Easter after Palm Sunday service with donkey. Friday is the Silent Walk of Witness from 10am, calling at each of Churches Together in Ottery buildings for prayer. Last stop is the United Reformed church where a Good Friday service is at 11am, with hot cross buns after.

The Parish Church has devotions from 12noon to 3pm where one can join at each half hour slot. Easter Vigil is at 8pm. Easter Day starts with Holy Communion Service at 7am in the churchyard, then BCP inside at 8am and then 10am the Common Worship Communion service in the parish church and at 6.30pm Songs of Praise.

Ottery is holding more weddings than earlier and our prayers and good wishes are with each of the couples and their families. Our new event of Coffee and Chat in the Parish Church from 10am on Tuesdays is proving very popular and one in the Methodist Church at the same time is also well supported.

At Seaton Christians Together will be stepping back in time to remember two important events - one recent locally, the other many years and miles from here. So do join together on Good Friday outside Tesco at 12noon to find out more, with buns at 12.45pm.

At St Andrew's Church in Colyton, Palm Sunday Communion service was joined by a donkey in procession.

There are many special seasonal services and events at this time. In the past few days there have been performances at the Beehive Centre Honiton of a contemporary oratorio - "Christ Crucified".

At the end of this week, for Christians the scene changes and the risen Lord is greeted in varying ways according to custom. The earliest local start on Easter Day is likely to be with Holyford Mission Community at Colyton Picnic site (church if wet) for the Sunrise Vigil and Holy Communion: all welcome.

Gittisham parish in Honiton Team is celebrating the news that a House for Duty priest, the Reverend Charles Masheder will be joining the team in October.

Monday, August 4th this year is being remembered in many places as the 100th anniversary of the end of the first Great War, and Royal British Legion branches are collecting information to be used for this occasion.

Remembrance Sunday on November 9th this year will also be kept, with the usual special services and wreath laying on this day, so do watch for local arrangements for both August and November. Exeter Diocese is offering poppy seeds to sow in churchyards as a reminder of Devon's war heroes. News of the progress of this project would be welcome by emailing communications@exeter.anglican.org.

One local branch of the Royal British Legion at Honiton is looking forward to the future as their branch meeting place has moved to the Honiton Methodist Chapel.

The Archdeacons of Barnstaple and of Totnes have both announced their retirement in a few months time. Temporary appointments are being made.

Last word, the Minster Church will re-open for services on April 13th at Axminster, but with some restrictions for the present.

MARY Hyland is originally from Lancashire but moved to the Blackdowns in the early 1980s to raise her family.

She has two sons, a daughter and two step-children, but since she set up a brand new business in 2006, it is other people's families that have most inspired her.

She moved to Honiton from Yarcombe in January last year to start a new chapter in her unique business, Plantagenesta, which helps people to trace their personal family history.

● CAN you give me a brief overview of the service Plantagenesta offers?

We do anything to do with family history – commissions, lessons for people wanting to carry out their own projects and our very popular one-to-one sessions. This means the client comes into the shop and works with us on their family history, with us guiding the way and explaining all the historic data. The commissions are carried out by ourselves and the resulting binder is second to none in our field – I am a former graphic artist, and insist that things have to look right as we are producing a potential family heirloom.

● WHAT are the basic steps you take in tracing a family history?

You have to start with the present day and work steadily backwards to see what you uncover. Some people mistakenly think that you can start off in the Tudor times, for example, with someone famous and work this way linking them to your own family. We start by looking at census returns, birth, marriage and death records, perhaps employment records and military records, before we start to go backwards through time looking at Parish Records, old Tithe maps and other sources.

● WHAT is the furthest back you have managed to trace someone's family?

The furthest back I have gone is the year 846AD. My client, Roy Hill of Exeter, has a direct connection with the Bampfylde family of Politmore House and backwards through the aristocratic history of these islands to Rollo the Viking whose tomb is in Rouen cathedral in France. En route with this project we picked up on about 22 monarchs of the British Isles.

● WHAT about your own family history?

We are just plain Irish folk on my father's side. I use my maiden surname of Hyland because that is who I am. We do come from the village of Avoca in Co Wicklow, which is where the old TV programme 'Ballykissangel' was filmed. However, my colleague, Jonathan Widdowson has just discovered that his four times great grandfather was the steward to Admiral Lord Nelson – and there is a very interesting story that indicates Jonathan is actually related to Lord Nelson.

● HOW did you first get into doing family histories?

I have always been interested in the past and in my own family history, and carried out projects for friends as a hobby. A chance remark by someone I did not even know led me down this path

● WAS it challenging to turn a hobby into a career?

It is often said that one cannot earn a living doing family history – Plantagenesta is totally unique in that we work from shop premises open to the public. It has been extremely challenging to work out the logistics of a commercial business in these difficult financial times, but my client base obviously thinks we are doing something right.

● HOW have people in Honiton responded to Plantagenesta?

People are very interested in what we do, and our strange little shop at Number 8 and a half High Street. People have been to see us with photos of the shop when Miss Fowler had it as a lace shop and the Royal Warrant was over the window.

● YOUR business is all about the past, but what does the future hold?

In the immediate future we are looking to franchise the business into other areas of the country. It is a very specialised field and a unique business model, and we are just making inroads into how we might do this.

Funding available for town and parish councils working together

EAST Devon District Council and Devon County Council have worked together again to put the sum of £1.10 per elector into a Parishes Together Fund grants scheme that town and parish councils can apply for.

Town and parish councils can qualify for the funding if they are working together and involving the community to try and solve local issues. All applications must be submitted jointly from two or more parishes and the funding could be used for anything from permanent items to events, networks and one-off costs.

Each town or parish council involved can apply for up to £1.10 for every person in their parish that was listed on the Electoral Roll in February 2014.

The funding was also available in the previous two years, with 26 parish and town council projects funded in 2013/2014. Examples of these included the purchase of a community transport bus to take people to Exmouth Hospital and the new Budleigh Salterton Health and Wellbeing Centre costing £21,805; employing a hawking contractor to reduce the amount of seagulls in Seaton, Sidmouth and Exmouth costing £17,600; specialist training for new volunteers at the Ottery Help Scheme, providing services including bereavement support, hospital transport and a memory cafe for £5,557; improvements to Clyst Honiton play area totalling £4,130; installing a water tap in Bishops Clyst allotments that are used by other parishes for £595; support for young people in the Axminster area who have mental health issues costing £9,016.

To find out more, apply, or see what else has been funded, visit the website www.eastdevon.gov.uk/parishestogetherfund

EDDC's part of the funding has come from the New Homes Bonus, which is paid by the government to councils for every new home built or brought back into use.

Councillor Ray Bloxham, EDDC member and chairman of the New Homes Bonus Panel, said: "In these times of financial need this is an important fund that we have set up jointly with Devon County Council. I would encourage town and parish councils to keep talking to their neighbours and others throughout the district and thinking about how they can make best use of this pot of money".

Devon County Council Leader John Hart added: "Devon County Council is continuing to make funds available to communities to use how they see best. This money is available to parish and town councils to spend in ways that will benefit their communities.

"I firmly believe decisions should be made as locally as possible to encourage local accountability and I have always advocated more partnership with our district, town and parish colleagues.

"If we believe in the 'resilience' of our smaller communities, then this is one way of pump-priming activity."

Stockland students release salmon into river

CHILDREN from Stockland Academy have released 50 tiny salmon fry into a local stream after watching them hatch and grow in their classroom.

The little fish – just one batch of 6,000 salmon raised by the Axe Vale Rivers Association – were taken from the aerated and cooled tank where they grew over the past seven weeks and released on Friday, March 21st in the heart of the village on a tributary of the River Yarty.

After finding their individual territories they will stay in the river for a year or more before migrating to sea and then may travel as far as Greenland across the Atlantic before returning in three or four years time.

Two other local junior schools – Chardstock and Hawkchurch – took part in the Salmon In Schools Project, backed by the Westcountry Rivers Trust, East Devon Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, Dorset AONB and the Department for the Environment, Food and Rural affairs.

Each child released a fish. Children also caught and studied the "creepie crawlies", such as water fleas and fly larvae, found in the local stream. By counting the numbers of such invertebrates experts can tell the quality of the water.

Atlantic salmon are under threat because of disease, overfishing at sea, and face severe breeding problems because they need clear water and clean gravel to lay their eggs. Some local streams have become unsuitable because of silt washed down from the land.

theWI INSPIRING WOMEN Women's Institutes ROUND UP

THORNCOMBE

THORNCOMBE WI held its annual general meeting on April 9th in the village hall.

After normal business, the President opened the annual meeting, and the independent examiner for the ensuing year was appointed, after which the outgoing treasurer, Barbara Roberts, presented the financial statement, which showed a healthy balance and was adopted unanimously by members.

The secretary, Nora Arnold, presented the annual report outlining activities held over the past year, which was unanimously adopted. During her address, the president Julia Snellock paid tribute to members who had passed away during the year.

She thanked the secretary and committee for their hard work and support, giving especial thanks to Barbara Roberts, who had done sterling work as treasurer and was relinquishing the post for personal reasons, but adding that we were fortunate to have Margaret Fraser, who had volunteered to take over.

The committee were standing for re-election and were unanimously accepted, with the addition of Betty Cox as a committee member.

Julia Snellock was unanimously re-elected as president and Meg Terrett thanked her and her committee on behalf of all members for their hard work and dedication over the year.

Members then enjoyed a light supper, whilst discussing the resolution, which was to encourage every WI member to make their wishes known concerning organ donation, and to encourage their families, friends and members of other local communities to do the same.

The next meeting will be held on May 13th at 7.30pm in Thorncombe Village Hall, when Sheena King will speak on "Reiki as a Complementary Therapy". The competition is for an aromatherapy oil burner. Hosts will be Barbara Barnes and Margaret Goldsborough. Don't forget Flower of the Month.

New members and visitors will be most welcome. Contact Julia Snellock 01460 30135.

ALL SAINTS

IT'S not often you get to have a spicy Tuesday afternoon, but the All Saints WI did just that when Alasdaire Marshall of Spice and Rice bought his portable kitchen and gave a lively account of his interest in spicy food and how he had built up his menu over the years.

His paint palette of spices looked gorgeous and the smells were wonderful. Alasdaire pointed out that all the wonderful ingredients could be purchased in Axminster.

He lost no time in explaining the basics of a good spicy dish and showed us how to cook several. Aluminium pans are the best; in went curry powder to heat up first then other spices and onions, and so it went on.

Rice was cooked and before we knew it several tasty dishes were on the table for everyone to try.

The All Saints WI meets every second Tuesday of the month in the All Saints Village Hall.

Care and share group learn of Devon's connections to slavery

THE tentacles of the slave trade reached far into Devon, even into quiet market towns like Honiton, said local historian Tony Simpson to a meeting of Care and Share at Honiton Baptist Church.

Not only did the English slave trade start in Devon, with John Hawkins first slaving voyage from Plymouth in 1562, but for centuries local notables and property owners - from Exeter to Honiton, from Sidmouth and Exmouth to Cullompton, and many other places in Devon - benefitted from the receipts of slavery, especially from the West Indian plantations.

We know of the first slaving voyages by Hawkins and others from Devon. We have records of slaves and black servants who then came here by various means and worked for Devon notables.

Dr Todd Gray and others record 40 or so ships that set out from Devon ports to trade for slaves and then take them across the middle passage. This was nowhere near as extensive as the port of Liverpool but we know that up to 17,000 slaves a year were being transported by Bristol ships alone.

But we now have compelling evidence of how extensive the Devon ownership of slave plantations was from UC London. When slavery was done away with in 1833 the Slave Compensation Compensation made extensive awards to plantation owners or their heirs in Devon, worth many millions today. Over 80 Devon owners claimed compensation for the loss of slave labour on 180 plantations.

Though many Devon towns had had anti-slavery petitions, including Honiton in 1792, Devon Tory and Whig politicians in both Houses of Parliament representing Honiton, Plymton, Exeter, Barnstaple, Ashburton, Totness and elsewhere, were finally persuaded to vote for the end of slavery by the generous payments they were given from taxpayer funds.

One of the larger claims for compensation for plantation slaves was by Hugh Duncan Bailee, Tory MP for Honiton 1835-47 and his brother James. The Bailees were West Indian merchants with numerous plantations in the Caribbean. They were part of the Bristol Old Bank – the slavers bank.

Hugh and James Bailee claimed £40,000 – worth almost £4million today - for 1,600 slaves. Hugh Bailee would have had no trouble paying for votes in Honiton, which had been the Tory tradition for a century or more. At nearby Shute Sir William Pole, 7th Baronet, shared over £5,295 compensation for 340 slaves on St Kitts plantations.

The Poles had represented Honiton in parliament and as Mayor. As far back as 1619, the former Sir William Poles had a black servant called Katheren who was buried at Colyton. The list also included clergy such as the Bishop of Exeter Henry Philpott, who in 1833 jointly claimed for over 600 slaves, and in 1838 consecrated the new St Paul's Church, Honiton.

Among Devon merchants claiming compensation for slaves including Emmanuel Lousada, a Sidmouth merchant who built Peak House and Clifton Cottage. Lousada supervised the restoration of Sidmouth Parish Church. He became High Sheriff of Devon. Lousada claimed over £6,800 for 334 slaves in Barbados and Jamaica.

Thomas Porter of Rockbeare the son of another High Sherrif of Devon claimed £19,000 for almost 400 slaves in British Gyana. Among the largest Devon landowners involved in slavery were the Rolle family of Bicton. John Rolle claimed £4,300 for 377 slaves, the largest slaveholding on the Bahamas.

Women too greatly benefitted from slavery. At Sidmouth, the poet Elisabeth Barratt Browning who was actually writing her anti-slavery poems at Sidmouth between 1832-1836 when the compensation claims were made. Her father, Edward Barratt, owned slave plantations in Jamaica called Hope End where there was a slave uprising in 1831.

Caroline Haughton Clarke, the daughter of slave owner John Haughton James shared £6,400 for 342 slaves on two Jamaican plantations. Heiress Caroline Robley of Tiverton inherited £34,000 for 16,000 slaves on her husbands plantations.

So when we visit churches, great houses or other landmarks today, and when we consider notable acts of philanthropy or public work ask – where did this money come from? Did it come from slavery?

History of lighthouse shared with Axe Valley association

THE subject for the first talk of 2014 for the Axe Valley Heritage Association, under their new talks secretary, was "The Story of the Smalls Lighthouse" by Alan Nicholas, a retired lighthouse engineer.

The illustrated talk started with a description of the site, which is a dangerous reef, known as The Smalls, some 20 miles off the West Wales coast of Pembrokeshire.

The speaker explained how requests from mariners in the 16th and 17th centuries had been refused and gave the reasons. He then took members through the successful building of the first wooden lighthouse in the 18th century, the death, by natural causes, of a keeper on the lighthouse, and the problems this caused.

Then onwards into the 19th century and the building of the granite tower that continues to this day to warn the mariner of the dangerous reef. Nowadays, the lighthouse is unmanned, automatic and is lit by solar and wind generated electricity.

A vote of thanks was given by Geoff Marshall, chairman of the association, which runs Seaton Museum, and the audience responded enthusiastically.

The next talk will be by another local historian, Tony Burges, who gives members "West Country Snippets" on Wednesday, May 14th at the United Reformed Church Hall, Cross Street, Seaton, at 7.30pm.

Anybody wishing for further information should contact Alan Nicholas on 01297 792212.

Young Farmers bury time capsule as part of anniversary celebrations

■ CHRIS Manley, Emily Vallis (Culm Valley YFC secretary), Olly Read (Culm Valley YFC chairman) and George Kittow (Culm Valley YFC president)

DEVON Young Farmers burried a time capsule at the site of the first Young Farmers' Club in Hemyock to commemorate the 80th anniversary of the National Federation of Young Farmers' Clubs (NFYFC).

The ceremony took place at Milhayes Play Area in Hemyock on Saturday, when current and former members of NFYFC, the largest rural youth organisation in the UK, were joined by local dignitaries and residents.

Among the guests was chairman of Mid-Devon County Council, John Berry, chairman of Hemyock Parish Council, Heather Stallard, and Councillor Ray Radford on behalf of Neil Parish MP.

The ceremony was timely as it followed Culm Valley YFC's Show and Sale earlier this month – an event the club has been hosting since Hemyock YFC was first set up in 1921.

Hemyock YFC eventually evolved into Culm Valley YFC and former members attended the ceremony to reminisce and talk about their experiences of being part of the federation. Among them was 84-year-old Brian Clist, a former club chairman from 1951, who lives on Mountshayne Farm in Culm Valley.

Brian's farm has been in the family for 300 years and his father was the first vice-chairman of Hemyock YFC and attended the very first calf sale on the grounds near where the time capsule was buried. His eldest son was also vice-chairman of Culm Valley YFC in the 1970s.

Mr Clist said: "I am delighted that Young Farmers' Clubs are still going strong and I feel proud to know that my family were members of one of the longest running clubs in England and Wales. I can remember attending the sales back in the 1950s, learning traditional skills such as rope making and stockjudging. We also enjoyed the dances too."

As well as a display of the federation's old photos and documents, Culm Valley YFC served refreshments in the village hall. Among the haul of items included in the time capsule were photos, programmes, stickers, badges and information about clubs and the federation.

The intention is for future YFC members to dig up the capsule in 2058 so they can find out what life as a young farmer was like in 2014.

Chris Manley, member of Culm Valley YFC and NFYFC's national vice-chairman of council, said: "We are very excited to be burying the National Federation of Young Farmers' Clubs' time capsule in Hemyock to mark our 80th year. There's an impressive collection of items inside celebrating all that is great about YFCs today and I am sure it will interest the young farmers of the future.

"We are extremely proud of our heritage and the fact we have been around for more than 80 years. The Federation has made a difference to so many lives, and it will be great to be standing on the site in Devon where it all began!"

If concerns over library cuts are brushed aside, what next?

■ JOAN Freeland (April 8th) suggests the government, not Devon County Council, is to blame for cuts in library services.

She has a point; our Eton mess of a private school cabinet has little experience of using public services and finds it easy to talk of "tough choices", so long as these do not affect bankers and the rich.

However, it is reasonable to expect our councils to defend us, not just submit. Has our own DCC controlling group of Tories protested to the government? Have they pointed out the damage that will be done?

I was present to hear Councillor John Hart, the leader, suggest libraries could be run by volunteers. It didn't sound like a "tough choice".

So why should we resist? Because the library service is one service and weaknesses in one, let alone 22 county libraries run by volunteers, could impact on the whole service as they have found in Cornwall when professional staff were laid off. This is a process known as degradation.

With all due respect to volunteers we wear out and have to be constantly replenished. What happens to stock control, cataloguing, indexing and other systems? Or to advice and information services, job search, outreach, etc? Who is responsible for quality control, mis-information or books simply mis-shelved, thus lost?

If these and other concerns are to be brushed aside to save money, what next? Why not run schools with volunteers (some private schools are already taught by teaching assistant)? Why not replace our police service with special constables or better still, vigilantes with truncheons? Who needs environmental services? What is this thing called quality of life?

EDDC made Beer car parking decision without consultation

■ REGARDING Kevin Fahey's article on the new 24-hour parking fees in Beer (Pulman's View, April 8th), I quite agree with the "angry" Beer traders about the new parking fees for the central long-stay car park.

Yet again, East Devon District Council has made decisions that affect local people without consultation. We are the taxpayers, they are our servants, not the other way around!

As we now have to pay 24 hours a day to park in the main car park, may I suggest that they use some of the extra income to salt/grit this car park when the weather determines it, as EDDC must have a duty of care for their patrons.

The doctors' surgery is also in one corner of the main car park, this would also make it safer for their patients to attend when ice and frost are around.

Sports funding could be spent on pool

■ ON the front page of Pulman's View From Seaton (April 8th) there were two articles – "How would you spend sports cash?" and "Seaton pool to remain open".

Is there no way that £10,000 from the £82,000 can be given to the swimming pool at Seaton Primary School? Or is that too easy?

Maybe they could spend it on some advertising to tell people when the pool is open to the public and then maybe it would be used more.

I had no idea it was open to the public at all and it seems not many other people did either. We've been crying our for a pool for years so surely some of this £82,000 could go towards it.

Library cuts will affect computer skills

■ RECENTLY I have been involved with the library service on a work experience program as an IT support assistant for customers.

During this time I have witnessed firsthand what a variety of work library staff do on a daily basis. Something I never really fully appreciated.

In the drive to cut unemployment and radically change the benefit system, more and more people are being compelled to use the internet. How many of these people have the necessary skills or even assistance to achieve this?

Before the very recent work experience program that I took part in, this burden fell squarely on library staff.

So there is talk of cutting libraries and related services. Has anyone thought to inform central government that the service they are starting to rely on so heavily is fast disappearing?

If the government wants a technological competent population it has to fund it in a like manner. Putting computers in libraries and community centres will not provide education in technology. Closing or manning libraries with volunteers will make this less likely.

Finally, I would like to thank all the staff and customers who made me so welcome at Seaton library.

PETER WOOSTER,
Streamers Meadows, Honiton

Onwards and upwards for Axminster!

■ A VERY sincere thank you to you and all your staff for promoting the Pride in Axminster awards and for the hospitality given at the presentation evening.

For me to receive the Fellender Award was very, very special to me, with many memories flooding back to me. I really appreciate the fact that so many people voted for me and could I also through your paper say thank you to them?

As you know, I was accepting the award for an honour not only for me but in memory of all the good folk whose input I have absorbed over the years.

It is now a case of onwards and upwards for Axminster thanks to your help.

Come and see Peppa Pig at Seaton Tramway

SEATON Tramway, the delightful heritage tramway and tourist attraction in the Heart of Lyme Bay, is offering a variety of exciting opportunities for kids bringing their parents to visit over the Easter period Friday, April 18th to Monday, April 21st.

Kids, get your copy of the Easter Activity sheet when buying your tram tickets. This is the key to you joining in the Easter fun.

If coming to the Tramway on Easter Sunday, look out for Peppa Pig and Professor Bloomin Bonkers balloon twisting!

Peppa Pig, the loveable but slightly bossy little pig, will be making appearances at the Tramway at intervals throughout the day. There will be photo opportunities so don't forget to bring your cameras!

If you prefer watching balloons being twisted into a multitude of different shapes and animals, then make a beeline for Professor Bloomin Bonkers, who will be based at Colyton Station throughout the day.

Whilst you are visiting the Tramway then why not get Mum and Dad to treat you to lunch or a Devon Cream Tea in our Tramstop Café at Colyton. There will be plenty of room as it has been much extended with a large airy and light Garden Room seating over 100 people.

Tell Mum and Dad that on whatever day you come, everyone will now receive 'Explorer' tickets, which provide all day unlimited travel. You can make as many journeys as you wish, with the bonus of being able to hop on and hop off at any station and ride on any number of fascinating trams from the oldest to the newest including the "pink tram".

If you are under three and accompanied by an adult, you travel free, and if you are under sixteen accompanied by an adult, your tram ticket will cost just half the adult ticket price.

What better way to spend a day at Easter than to explore the Jurassic Coast at Seaton and the townships of Colyford and Colyton, as well as the River Axe Estuary and Axe Estuary Wetlands with all the amazing wildlife to be seen than from the all-round vision of the open top deck of an electric tram.

Tram tickets can be purchased at the Seaton Terminus and Colyton Station ticket offices (or on line at: www.tram.co.uk)

Concerts, Operas and Vikings at The Gateway!

THE Gateway at Seaton Town Hall will finish April with screenings from Berlin Philharmonic, New York Met Opera, and the British Museum.

On Tuesday, April 22nd, The Berlin Philharmonic's Easter Sunday concert, with special guest Sol Gabetta performing Elgar's Cello Concerto, will be shown.

Edward Elgar's warm and melodic Cello Concerto in E minor, Op. 85' had fallen out of favour until Argentine cellist Sol Gabetta came along. Her much acclaimed recording of this emotional work is both modern and invigorating. On Easter Sunday, she makes her debut with the Berlin Philharmonic to perform the Concerto live at Germany's largest opera house - the Festspielhaus, Baden-Baden. The orchestra will be under the baton of the Philharmonic's Chief Conductor and Artistic Director, Sir Simon Rattle. Also included in the programme are Gyorgy Ligeti's 'Atmospheres' and the prelude to Act 1 of Richard Wagner's opera ëLohengrin'. The concert climaxes with Igor Stravinsky's 20th century masterpiece ëLe Sacre du Printemps' ('The Rite of Spring'). Rattle made a highly praised recording of 'The Rite' to mark the ballet's centenary last year. Doors open 6pm Performance starts 7pm Tickets £13 in advance, and £15 on the door Tickets available from the Town Hall box office (01297 625699) or www.seatongateway website.

COSI Fan Tutte live streaming from Met Opera New York comes to The Gateway's big screen on Saturday, April 26th.

Cosi Fan Tutte (an opera) Music Director James Levine conducts Mozart's beloved opera about testing the ties of love. The cast is filled with youthful Met stars: Susanna Phillips and Isabel Leonard are the sisters Fiordiligi and Dorabella, Matthew Polenzani and Rodion Pogossov are their lovers, with Danielle de Niese as the scheming Despina. (running time 4hrs 5mins) Tickets £15 advance from Box Office (01297 625699), and www.seatongateway or £17.50 on the door. Doors open 5pm Performance 6pm.

A scene from Met Opera's Cosi Fan Tutte

ON Monday, April 28th The Gateway Big Screen presents the Vikings Exhibition from the British Museum, which promises to be a fascinating screening.

The first major exhibition on Vikings at the British Museum for over 30 years, the exhibition eatures many new archaeological discoveries and objects never seen before in the UK, alongside important Viking Age artefacts from the British Museum's own collection and elsewhere in Britain and Ireland.

Tickets £10.00 (matinee screening). Licensed bar.

Doors open 12.30pm Screening starts 1pm

TRANSFORMATION OF BEER WURLITZER

"THE Wurlitzer has undergone an extraordinary transformation, it is now a joy to play, it's really hunky-dory!" commented John Mann, one of the South's foremost organist entertainers, who made a welcome return to Beer on April 12th.

With the historic Beer Wurlitzer Theatre Organ fully restored, the Friends of the Beer Wurlitzer are confident that the 2014 programme of shows will be the best ever. John did not disappoint at the first show with his superb keyboard skills on the organ and piano and amusing rapport with the audience.

John Mann has spent his whole life pursuing a musical career from a young age when his family bought him a piano and he counts himself fortunate to have been part of the Golden Age of Summer Seaside Shows. His music at Beer recalled that gentler time and the audience appreciated his happy and nostalgic approach.

The second show for 2014 will be on May 10th at 2pm, when Matthew Bason, a popular and versatile musician, will entertain. Shows are held at the Congregational Church, Fore Street, Beer, EX12 3JQ. Admittance is £7 on the door which includes interval refreshments.

For further information please visit the website at www.beerwurlitzer.org.uk.

Bangers & Mash Supper and Easter Quiz in Hawkchurch

HAWKCHURCH Fete Committee's next fund raising event is a 'Bangers & Mash' Supper on Friday, April 18th in the Village Hall at 7pm. Entry is by ticket only £6 per person to include entry in the Easter Quiz which will follow the Supper at 8pm approximately.

If you just want to quiz, entry will be £1 per person on the door at 8pm.

An Easter Hamper Raffle will also take place after the Quiz.

Tickets for the Supper can be obtained from Christine Bright (01297) 678498.

2014 Branscombe Art Exhibition

THE popular Branscombe Art Exhibition has been running since 1991 and has successfully given not only opportunities for local artists to exhibit and sell their work, but also raised money for many local charities. This year the exhibition has joined forces with East Devon Artists for Charity and includes paintings by Tina Stokes, Ray Balkwill, Barry Mason, Helen Workman and other high quality work from over 80 artists.

Visitors will enjoy an entertaining showcase of attractive art with original paintings, drawings, pottery and wood turning, together with cards and craft all of which are for sale at affordable prices.

Devon Air Ambulance will receive 25% of sales plus any profit.

The exhibition will be open in Branscombe Village Hall 10am to 5pm on Good Friday (April 18th), Saturday, April 19th, Easter Sunday (April 20th) and closes on Monday, April 21st at 5pm.

Enjoy the Golf and Beautiful Coastal Views at Axe Cliff

FOR a limited period only, Axe Cliff Golf & Country Club are offering a special introductory 2014 Membership of just £325. Golfers, whether just starting the game or seasoned players, young or old, are all welcome.

Axe Cliff has the advantage over other courses that they very rarely close due to bad weather, and the course is fully playable throughout the year on full greens and no trolley bans.

Why not join as a family? The expanding junior section makes golf a family sport and tuition is available.

The Clubhouse holds many social events to help integrate new members, and the balcony is an ideal place just to chill out and admire the view of the Jurassic Coast.

Only a few spaces are left, so don't miss out on this amazing offer.

For more information please contact Peter Crosby by calling 01297 21754, or just come and see for yourself.

Pulman's Property View

Beautifully presented four bedroom 'cottage style' home

FORTNAM Smith & Banwell are offering this beautifully presented 4 bedroom 'cottage style' home built by Cavanna Homes in 2005 to a very high specification and finish. It occupies a quiet cul-de-sac location in Riverdale Orchard, a sought-after small development on the edge of Seaton. There is a true sense of community in the area and the cul-de-sac offers pedestrian access to Scalwell Lane, therefore, bringing it close to local amenities and the 'hail & stop' bus route which makes regular trips into the Town Centre. The property is presented in excellent order with well-thoughout accommodation including a kitchen / dining room with direct access to the integral garage. The master bedroom is of a particularly good size as it extends into the bay window and has the benefit of an ensuite shower room. The property sits in a lovely position looking down the cul-de-sac with a south-facing rear garden. This property is on the market for £268,000. For further details or to arrange a viewing, please contact the sole selling agents, Fortnam Smith & Banwell Seaton Office on 01297 23939.

SEATON – £172,500

PENNYS Fine & Country are delighted to offer for sale this superbly presented, semi detached modern house located within walking distance of the local shop, close to a bus stop and within easy reach of the town centre and beach. This impressive two storey house has gas central heating and sealed unit double glazing throughout. The accommodation briefly includes an entrance hall, living room with impressive inglenook fireplace, spacious well fitted kitchen/dining room, two bed good sized bedrooms, and modern bathroom. Outside, to the front of the property is a level lawn, driveway providing off road parking which in turn leads to a good sized garage. There are two pedestrian pathways leading to the rear, enclosed and landscaped garden which is stocked with a wide range of specimen plants and shrubs. The price is £172,500 with full details from Pennys on 01297 22224 or visit www.pennys.net

SEATON – £365,000

An attractive three/four bedroomed split level home located in a quiet cul-de-sac with outstanding panoramic views over the Axe Valley, Haven Cliff and Lyme Bay.

Constructed with colour washed rendered elevations under an interlocking tiled roof, the property offers spacious and flexible accommodation and has the usual benefits of uPVC double glazed windows, cavity wall insulation and gas fired central heating.

The wiring and accommodation has been updated with a refitted kitchen and bathroom and is attractively presented throughout and includes, living room, separate dining room, kitchen, three bedrooms, bedroom 4/study, bathroom and cloakroom. The living rooms all benefit from these stunning panoramic views. There is an open plan garden to the front and an attached garage to the side with the added benefit of a home office/studio at the rear.

The enclosed part walled landscaped garden at the rear has a masonry garden shed. EPC rating D.

SEATON – £999 PCM

CHAMPIONHOLMES is pleased to offer a spacious three bedroom detached house located on the outskirts of Seaton with rural views. The property benefits from gas central heating and wooden double glazed windows throughout and has exposed beams to most rooms.

The front door enters into the Entrance Hall which has light wood parquet flooring. Stairs lead up to the first floor, with storage provided under stairs. Doors lead off to all the ground floor rooms.

The parquet flooring continues into the Living Room, which has a brick built inglenook fireplace incorporating a gas coal effect stove. French doors give access to the south facing decked area with views over the countryside. The Study, located at the front of the property has similar parquet flooring, as does the adjacent Dining Room. The kitchen, with fitted wall and base units has a built-in integrated gas hob, double oven / grill, extractor hood and dishwasher. Space provided for washing machine and under counter fridge. A door leads to the side of the property and garden. The ground floor Cloakroom has a white suite comprising Wc and pedestal wash hand basin.

The first floor landing has a Velux window with views to the rear aspect and countryside with doors off to the bedrooms and bathroom. Bedroom One, a double, has windows to the front and side aspects and oak flooring. Storage is provided by way of two walk in cupboards housing the hot water tank and the gas boiler. The En-Suite Shower Room has laminate flooring and Velux window. The suite comprises shower cubicle, white WC, bidet and pedestal wash hand basin. Bedroom Two is a single size room with a window to the front aspect. The family Shower Room has a Veluxe style window and a laminate floor, with a white suite comprising large shower cubicle with thermostatic shower – the white vanity basin and WC is housed in fitted units with a concealed cistern. Bedroom Three, a good size double, has windows to three aspects and oak flooring.

Outside to the front the property is screened by an impressive brick wall with gate leading to a tarmac entrance courtyard where there is parking for a number of vehicles and a substantial detached single garage of matching design to the main house. The driveway is bordered by a well planted flower and shrub border. A paved patio leads round to the rear garden. Raised decking to the rear lawn and garden Shed. This property is very dog friendly.

DRYASABONE SERVICES

DRY CARPET CLEANERS

"FORGET WET"

NO MESS! NO FUSS! NO WATER!

Dryasabone carpet cleaners are a 21st century forward thinking family owned local established company that relies on excellent customer service and satisfaction for repeat business and recommendations.We guarantee to provide a sales gimmick free and reliable service with confirmed appointment times at a time convenient for you the customer not us.

Our expertise lies in dry/low moisture carpet cleaning , which means no-one is going to come along and soak your carpets with dirty water and steam up your windows for the rest of the day.

We specialise in the HOST* Dry extraction method which ensures your carpets are clean ,dry and looking their best.and back in use immediately."FORGET WET"

This method of cleaning has been developed over more than 50 years,and is used in over 60 countries and by some of the worlds largest organisations.

The price we quote is the full and final price you pay.No other gimmicks will be offered----our reputation is our main selling point and will not be compromised.

The Advantages.

- Uses safe natural bio-degradable non-toxic products
- Safe for children and pets
- No damp dog smells
- Is fully endorsed by major carpet retailers
- No steamy windows
- No sitting in your kitchen for hours waiting for carpets to dry
- No down time for hotels and guest houses
- Your rooms are back in use immediately
- A true earth friendly process

The Peugeot Exalt Concept– Design Innovator for Heightened Sensations

▲ PEUGEOT EXALT concept

WITH EXALT, PEUGEOT unveils its imposing vision of the saloon car by following the approach initiated in 2012 with the Onyx Concept. EXALT aims to please the senses. It stands out at first contact by its radical styling choices and the materials selected.

First seen on Onyx, the distinct line in the bodywork is reinterpreted by the association of bare metal and an efficient textile, Shark Skin, inspired by the unique texture of a shark's skin.

The remarkable acoustic comfort achieved inside permits the discovery of an array of materials – natural wool-based 'chiné' mixed fabric, aged leather, bare steel and ebony – used to finish the cabin. This high end variety of wood takes on its Chinese identity through the design created by the trio PINWU Design agency.

The technology incorporated makes every journey an experience: PEUGEOT i-Cockpit, black light, Pure Blue air purifier … this art of travel is powered by a petrol HYbrid4 drive train with an output of 340bhp.

The dynamic saloon

"With EXALT, PEUGEOT unveils its vision of the saloon, combining a sleek design with versatility. This radical approach and original qualities make EXALT instantly desirable."

Gilles Vidal, PEUGEOT Director of Style

With its sleek and athletic lines, EXALT embodies the power of PEUGEOT design. Sitting on wide tracks and powerfully rounded wheel arches, this five-door saloon expresses its style over a length of 4.70m. The alliance of flat surfaces and straight cut lines reconciles aggressiveness and softness.

EXALT chooses to be radical by deleting all superfluous materials, keeping only what is really useful. Its specification comprises materials from the melding of cultures with French and Chinese expertise. Each one of the materials used has been rigorously selected for their efficiency.

"PEUGEOT EXALT is athletic, powerful and sleek, incorporating original materials. Its cabin, trimmed in natural materials, is dedicated to comfort and instinctive driving. This innovative concept makes the saloon even more attractive and more versatile, in particular the boot with its unique opening mechanism exposing a large boot."

Pierre Paul Mattei, PEUGEOT EXALT Styling Manager

In homage to the art of the French motor car from the twenties and thirties, its bare steel bodywork is hand-formed by a master panel beater.

One of a kind, it reinterprets the historical cues that make up automobile passion: taut and dynamic lines, a high waist line, a raked windscreen, a low roof (just 1.31m), a very slender profile that conceals a cabin that is still spacious, tightly shaped side panels with basalt fibre sills and 20-inch wheels.

The long bonnet grows out of the particularly expressive front end where the twin headlamps, set in the bumper, integrate the Brand's recognizable signature lighting. In the middle, the powerful grille emerges from the bodywork and provides the backdrop for the doubly symbolic lion. This is because this animal is both the emblem of the Brand and in Chinese culture, the expression of power and prestige. At the bottom, the flow of air supplying the engine is divided by 'fins' carrying the LED direction indicators.

To improve the drag coefficient, the rear of EXALT is trimmed in Shark Skin, an efficient textile. Due to its technical grain structure, this material resulting from bio-mimicry markedly improves the aerodynamic performance of the vehicle, with the aim of reducing fuel consumption.

Its use is elevated by a straight line making the transition between the rear door and the quarter light, the transition between the grey of the steel and the red of the Shark Skin. This material contributes towards EXALT's aerodynamic performance – with an SCx of 0.6 – in association with other elements: an air extractor in the rear bumper, the curve of the roof and the profiled mirrors.

With such remarkable aerodynamics, the mark left by EXALT on its surroundings is essentially visual. A horizontal band in the hollow of the rear spoiler shows the width of the car and the sculpted facet of the lighting signature.

PEUGEOT EXALT also provides exceptional versatility for a saloon. The boot works with an innovative pantograph mechanism. This arrangement allows maximum opening while needing less space externally. The boot with its integral motorised aperture reveals a boot with a low load sill. Trimmed in wood, it presents a delightful space and facilitates the handling of luggage.

Instinctive driving

The PEUGEOT i-Cockpit delivers an intense driving experience dedicated to enjoyment. The small wheel trimmed in leather and 'chiné', a natural wool-based mixed fabric, and the digital instrument panel are intuitively arranged in front of the driver for improved operation and reading. On the extended centre console, two folding touch screens emerge from the dashboard. The upper screen gives access to the on board computer and the Hi-Fi and navigation systems. The second screen presents a permanently visible control bar to provide access to the automatic air conditioning and the Pure Blue system.

New safety advice launched for Scooter riders

A host of new safety information and resources is being made available for the first time to scooter riders in the UK in a bid to help keep them safe on the roads.

The "PACT" campaign, launched by not-for-profit tyre safety organisation TyreSafe, provides riders with a wealth of free advice and tyre maintenance tips, designed to ensure that they remain safe on the road, whatever the conditions.

"Due to their low cost of ownership and their congestion-busting ability, scooters have become an increasingly popular method of transport in recent years," explains Stuart Jackson, chairman, TyreSafe. "However, very often owners have not ridden any other kind of motorcycle so they may be unfamiliar with the considerable demands being placed on their tyres and the need for proper and regular maintenance."

In order to get the best performance from their tyres, including handling, braking, acceleration and lower fuel bills, TyreSafe is recommending riders make three important weekly checks on their tyres.

Firstly, riders should check that their tyres are inflated to the correct pressure, which can be found in the scooter's handbook. Under-inflated tyres will wear out quicker, provide less stability and are at greater risk from overheating and suffering a rapid failure.

Riders should also check the condition of their tyres, looking for any cuts, lumps or bulges. The tread area should also be inspected to see if any stones, nails or other objects have become embedded. If the tyre shows any of these signs, it should be checked immediately by a qualified tyre professional.

Finally, to ensure proper grip, especially in wet conditions, riders should check that their tyres have sufficient tread depth. Scooters with less than 50cc need to have all of the grooves of the original tread pattern visible whereas those over 50cc must have at least 1mm of tread depth across the central three quarters of the tyre with visible tread on the remaining quarter.

"It's very important that scooter riders make these checks at least once a week, and as they only take a few moments to carry out, there's little excuse for not doing so. What's more, to show riders what they need to do, we've created a very simple animation to help them. Of course, if they're still in any doubt, then they should visit their local tyre expert who will happily show them what to do," concludes Jackson.

To view the TyreSafe scooter animation or to any of the campaign's other resources, visit www.tyresafe.org.

Buying new cars costs less than used in 50% of cases

AS new car sales hit 10-year high, What Car? analysis shows more people should buy new Motorists can buy a new car for hundreds of pounds less than a one-year old vehicle, according to analysis by What Car?.

Most drivers assume that new models are always more expensive thanks to the sharp drop in value when the car is driven off the forecourt, and so think that their budget will only ever stretch to a second-hand vehicle.

What Car? research shows that this isn't the case. The range of attractive finance deals and low-cost or interest-free loans currently offered by manufacturers and dealers means buying new can sometimes be the cheaper alternative.

The study analysed deposit amounts, monthly finance payments or personal loan repayments, excise duty, warranty and MoT test costs and depreciation across a range of cars and found that used car ownership cost more in 50% of cases.

For example, a new Skoda Citigo, with its list price of £9490, would cost a buyer £5029 over three and a half years. A one-year old version priced at £8598 would cost £6246 over the same period. The new car will save you £1217.

Similarly, a new Citroën C4 Picasso costs £12,850 over four years, while a one-year old version comes to £13,436.

The study comes as new car sales surged to a 10-year high in March.

What Car? consumer editor Emma Butcher said: "Our research turns the traditional assumption about car buying on its head.

"Don't take it for granted that a used car is automatically going to offer you the best value. The combination of low interest rates and car maker incentives can make a new car a better buy. Do your homework and you may just surprise yourself."

New car buyers can compare the latest hot deals on brand new cars at www.whatcar.com/dealsoftheweek.

Honiton edge closer to promotion

Honours even in Seaton and Beer derby clash

Devon & Exeter Round-up
by Collin Goodwin

TIVERTON TOWN bounced back in style after their midweek defeat at Feniton, to shatter second place NEWTOWN 7-1.

The Yellows conceded first but then went 3-1 ahead at the break and ruled the second half as Newtown heads dropped. Danny Baily (3) Jesse Howe (2), John Bradford and Jake Searle were the Tivvy scorers.

Leaders ST MARTINS took another big step towards the Premier title when they triumphed 4-1 at HATHERLEIGH TOWN. Dan Norman with a brace, Lee Parker and Kevin Pike were the Saints scorers.

FENITON came from one down to beat WILLAND ROVERS 3-1, Dave O'Connor scoring twice and Ben Ede once from a free kick that deceived everyone.

Reece Kingdon opened Willands account but they had captain Rob Buxton sent off along with Fenny manager Mark Kingdom.

BUDLEIGH SALTERTON shared a 3-3 draw with CHARD TOWN and it was some contest with Budleigh keeper Alex Richardson saving a penalty with his head after the ball hit the post.

Jamie Underwood, Richard Hebditch and Max Westlake were Chards scorers. Jack Greenslade, Brandon Perry and Aaron Denny had the Robins' goals.

HEAVITREE UNITED emerged 3-2 winners in the basement derby with TOPSHAM TOWN. Heavies scorers were Ben Smith, Scott Jones and Jamie Mills.

CLYST VALLEY now staring relegation in the face had a battling 3-3 draw with THORVERTON, and the points were shared in a goalless in the derby clash between SEATON TOWN and visiting BEER ALBION.

ELMORE booked their place in Premier next season when they cantered to a 5-0 win at BICKLEIGH.

The Division One leaders' scorers were Matty Atkins 2, Callum Old, Bradley Newberry and Matt Harvey.

SIDBURY in second place had to settle for a 0-0 draw at WITHERIDGE, so they are under pressure from WELLINGTON after their 2-1 win at TIPTON ST JOHN, and also BOW AAC who beat CULLOMPTON 2-0 with a double from Kieran Stone.

Rangers are now in major trouble despite their basement rivals all losing as well.

Division Two leaders HONITON TOWN remain unbeaten but had to work hard for a 2-2 draw at DAWLISH UNITED. Joe Mulhall and Dan Broom grabbed the Honiton goals.

Their top spot now comes under pressure from DOLPHIN who routed SOUTH ZEAL 6-0.

Darren Pattinson with a hat-trick, Jimmy Lee Shaw, Liam Mallett and Al Makrani Jassim were Dolphins marksmen.

NEWTON ST CYRES suffered a 3-2 reverse at LYMPSTONE, and were duly overtaken by a rampant EXWICK VILLA who routed TOPSHAM TOWN 10-0.

Star man for Exwick was second-half Ethan Chalk with a hat-trick. Steve Morrish, Brad Cook and Aiden Barrett all added doubles.

WESTEXE ROVERS scorers in their 3-0 win at PINHOE were Rhys Parsons, Lee Dixon and Josh Dryhurst.

For the second time in two weeks CLYST VALLEY were unable to raise a side this time for a game at CREDITON.

Only two games were played in Division Three but plenty of goals. CHULMLEIGH stuck ten past EXMOUTH AMATEURS, while SIDMOUTH TOWN shared six with TEDBURN ST MARY.

EXMOUTH TOWN went eight points clear as Division Four leaders after a battling 3-2 victory against NORTH TAWTON, however there was another blow for AXMOUTH UNITED beaten 4-0 at THORVERTON.

Division Five leaders LAPFORD steamed to an eight point lead with an 8-0 win against DUNKESWELL , but rivals DAWLISH UNITED were unable to raise a side for their game at AMORY PARK RANGERS.

BOW AAC moved into contention wth a 3-0 win against SEATON , Dean Jones, Brian Leach and Simon Wynne scoring

There was a huge shock in Division Six where leaders UPLOWMAN slipped to a 2-1 defeat at SILVERTON. Richard Sobey and Scott Dodd were the Silvers scorers, Adam Cumes replying.

OTTERY ST MARY were floored 5-2 at HALWILL and could be relegated. Steve Hackett 2, Gareth Osman, Tom Jeenes and Laurie Turpin scored for Halwill.

HENRYS CRONIES are Division Seven champions at the first time of asking and have yet to drop a point.

Niall Martin with a hat-trick, Stewart Tyrer and Billy Rouse scored Henrys goals and they have still six games to play.

Second place KENTISBEARE admit they were lucky to get a 1-0 win at BRADNINCH courtesy of a late Blaine Fisher goal.

PERRY STREET LEAGUE
Farway Utd 4 Pymore 2

PYMORE's promotion hopes took a dip as the fell to a 4-3 defeat down at Eastlee Park despite leading twice.

Cameron Murless gave the visitors an early lead only for Brad King to level. Adam Cody-Boutcher made it 2-1 then Laurance Gay bagged the second equaliser before the turnaround.

Dan Williams edged the Devonians ahead and Gay scored again before they were reduced to 10 men when Dave Summers was dismissed by referee Lance Turner for a last man foul.

Not such good news from Farway Reserves who were beaten 4-2 at home by Combe B. Chris Haines and Adam Lawson netted the Farway consolations.

HAWKCHURCH UNITED racked up their biggest away win in more than seven seasons as Ilminster Town A were put the sword at the Rec.

After a goal less first-half Stuart Dymond (3), Jack Larcombe (3), Ollie Pearce and Luke Harding scored the goals in the 8-0 Division Three mauling.

MILLWEY RISE were due to travel to Crewkerne last night (Monday) after picking up a useful point in a 1-1 draw with title-chasing Lyme Regis last Tuesday.

Keith Forsey scored the Rise goal just before half-time.

YOUTH FOOTBALL| STOKE HILL U13s SEATON TOWN 2

TEN-man Seaton took the lead in the 16th minute in this seond v third encounter when Man-of-the-Match Olly Upperdine found Jake Matthews who took his time before shooting home.

Stoke Hill equalised five minutes before the interval.

The hosts had a lot more of the ball in the second-half and hit the cross bar twice .

But Seaton got the winner when Upperdine was fouled out by the touch line, Matthews took the resulting free-kick from 30 yards out, Sam Waddon tried to get on the end of it but couldn't quite reach it but his run had caught the eye of the keeper and the free-kick went straight in.

Unbeaten Pixies hit top spot with third victory

RESULTS: Tip Top Trees 56 Pixies 66, JD Tyres 57 Howden Hawks 53, Signs South West 61 Sidmouth Toucans 50, OPG 39 Hi Q 34.*

PIXIES made it three wins inthree when they triumphed over a six-player Tip Top Trees.

With Sara Benson playing well Pixies made the most of their player advantage and although Jenny Robinson worked tirelessly for the Trees Pixies had the lead at 53-44 by half way and held on to win by 66 -56. This win put Pixies in the top spot over the Easter period.

After their opening day defeat OPG have bounced back and took their second win in a row to climb in to second place. They were up against Hi Q in what proved to be a close run thing. With Sadie Moran in fine form Hi Q held the lead at half way by 27-19, but with Cara Monaghan playing well for OPG it was all square at 31-31 going in to the final period. OPG then moved ahead to win by 39-34.

JD Tyres were big climbers by virtue of their close 57-53 win against Howden Hawks, jumping from the bottom up to 7th place. With Zoe Dunn doing well at centre for Hawks they held the lead at half way by 45-43. In the third quarter JD stepped up a gear and with Katie White playing a good game at WA they moved in front to end the game victorious.

Sidmouth Toucans have had a tough start to the season and tonight they went down to their third defeat in 3 games, this time at the hands of Signs South West.

SSW had clawed back their deficit by the end of the first quarter and they crept in front 42-40 at half way before opening up a gap in the third period to start the final session 52-43 in front.

With Debbie Wheeler doing well at centre Signs ran out 61-50 winners despite good work from Danni Walters for Sidmouth.

◆ LAST weekend HONITON BOWLING CLUB hosted the Final of the Lady's County Top Club Competition.

Sides came up from Plymouth and Torquay for the honour of being the inaugural winners of this Trophy presented to the County by Honiton Ladies.

The 2wood Singles which was nip and tuck with Bev Ryland, Torquay, just holding the upper hand over Kathy Holmes of Plymouth. Then a slip from the three quarter to full length jacks she had been playing to a short jack gave Kathy a two on the 16th end to lead 12-11. Three more short jacks gave her six shots and the match.

In the 4wood Single Sarah Quayl, Plymouth, played Ros Coombe, Torquay. This was a tight match for a while but Sarah eventually won 21-14.

Cassidy Lenton & Terri Kennard looked like they would take the pairs against Pam Lee & Val Lander but the determined Plymouth Pair pulled the match back to 16-16 all on the 20th end before came out on top.

The Triples and Fours were still in play, but Plymouth had always held the upper hand Torquay, and came out 17-8 winners.

Plymouth, could not reproduce the magic that saw them beat Honiton in the semi-final and were in deep trouble from the start against Torquay. At 18 ends the score stood at 30-7 to Torquay but as Plymouth had four of the five they had won the competition.

Sprinkling of local runners in capital's showpiece

IF you watched the London Marathon on Sunday, then in between arty shots of Big Ben you may have spotted one or two of the AVR gang that ran in the heat writes Dave Mutter.

Graham Newton had surgery only two weeks ago and was uncertain if he would compete, but in the end the urge to run was too great and he had a great run, finishing 4,754th out of 35,755 in 3:32:57; a full ten minutes quicker than last year and he was 13th in the over 65 category. If anything he ran the first half too quickly, 1:36:37 so maybe next year he will improve again.

After running the Grizzly and then another 20 miler the week after Roger Bramley's knee started to complain and made running quite painful. Roger overcame the pain and running for SENSE finished 8,341st in 3:47:10.

Running together for the Donkey Sanctuary Sue Campbell and Adele Foxwell enjoyed the run and were joint 14,680th, 4:12:50. Simon Davey's goal was to beat the 4:30 barrier and he achieved that finishing 13,370th, 4:26:44 and in her first London Michelle Bee running for RAFA (Royal Air Force Association) was very pleased to be 26,124th, 5:02:35.

The London Marathon is very difficult to get into with 150,000 people trying to get one of about 15,000 ballot entries, that left many AVR's free for the day so a minibus full of eager Axe Valley Runners headed north towards Chepstow / Tinterne Abbey for the 20k off road delight called the Offas Orror.

There were 17 AVR's running on a very pleasant sunny day. The winner of the race was Chepstow runner James Blore in 1:23:50 followed by our own Matt Clist who was 2nd in 1:24:20 winning a nice wooden sculpture and a bottle of beer. Phil Bayliss, back to good form again, was 39th, 1:42:10 winning the first vet 60 prize.

Right on his heels was James Gular, 40th, 1:42:40. Ian Apps came in 51st, 1:46:08 followed by Eleanor Wood 81st, 1:50:43, winning the 2nd vet 50 prize. Steve Lewis came in 137th in exactly 2hrs. Richard Hale was next, 150th, 2:02:35 followed by Steve Reynolds in 161st place, 2:04:39 and right behind him John Larcombe 162nd, 2:04:54.

The ever-improving Alan Morbey was 166th, 2:06:39. Margaret Pearce also running strongly was 169th, 2:07:05. Anna McLoughlin was next home, 194th, 2:12:35 followed by Chris Hill 197th, 2:12:58. Paul Tolchard was 199th, 2:13:46.

Janet and Geoff Woodward decided to run together as Janet was just coming back from injury and they finished in 2:51:05 and 2:51:16. Well done to Chepstow Harriers for organising such a wonderful race with 263 runners in total.

HONITON Running Club held its Hippo and Calf runs last week writes Judy Davey.

The main Honiton Hippo race is just over seven miles long and was won by Rob Ellis in the very quick time of 52 minutes 20 seconds and the first lady home was Elizabeth Dyson who finished in 59:56.

Most Honiton RC members were involved in helping or marshalling but some did take part with the first back also being the youngest. Kyle Hartnell finished 14th in 1:01:33. Another youngster followed in the form of Findlay Fuller in 24th place in 1:04:28.

Richard Harris was Honiton's first 'grown up' coming 31st in 1:05:43. Another under 18 followed with Henry Riddle coming 38th in1:07:15. Steve Selley came 40th in 1:08:13.

James Matheson was next back in 44th place in 1:10:20 followed closely by Louise Crisp two places later in 1:10:40.

Louise was very surprised to find she had won the trophy for her age category. Tom Dunn, home from university for Easter, was next back coming 58th in 1:12:19.

Pippa Westall had a great run finishing 71st in 1:15:43 with Tony Peek not too far behind at 76th in 1:17:43. Esme Wilson finished with her friend coming 83rd in 1:19:01.

Rosanna Lyus was encouraged by her dad to run and ended up beating him by two places to finish 115th in 1:25:56 with her dad, Pete, 22 seconds behind.

■ SPRING HEELED: Axe Valley runners assemble ahead of the Offas Orror

Lin Pike followed in 122nd place in 1:27:55 while Pete and Carol Turnham came 128th in exactly 1:29.

The Calf is open to youngsters of nine years and over and is approximately 1¾ miles in length. It follows the same route as the Hippo until coming out of Combe Woods when the Calf runners are sent back to base on the road.

The race was won by Bobby Simpson in 12 minutes even if he did take an interesting path back through the school! Honiton's Jack Elsom was given 2nd place although he actually crossed the finish line first!

Sam Dowson won U13B coming 4th in 12.56 followed by Florence Swan 1 place later who was 1st female.

Thomas Lilley came 10th in 14:14 followed by Jamie Porter who came 19th in 15:24.

Max Salter was next back for Honiton RC in 21st place in 15:41. Hannah Land was next back coming 26th in 16:17 followed by James Oak 30th in 17 mins.

Megan Burton came 35th in 18:40 with Zayna Small following two places later in 21:02. There were 38 finishers.

Conditions improving for golfers

AXE CLIFF with Helen Kenworthy
SENIORS
DESPITE reasonable conditions on Friday, but with pin positions in tricky spots scoring was not as good as expected.

Only one competitor, the ultimate winner, Tony Strong (9) with 34 points showed it could be done.

Three players tied on 31 points and with places decided on countback, the runner-up was Dave Weston (19), third was John White (21). Sid Pember (20) was the unlucky player to miss out.

The Stableford round was in aid of the Captain, Rob Groves' Charity The British Heart Foundation and the raffle raised £75.

There were four 2s, from John Pugh, John White, Tony Strong and Dave Weston.

In their first friendly match of the season Axe Cliff Seniors beat Windwhistle 6-0 - Long Sutton are up next.

In the Mens Section the winners of the Winter League, which is played over 12 rounds best 10 scores to count, are Alan Kenworthy & Chris Glover 333pts, 2nd Anthony Hellier & Andrew Hellier 330pts and 3rd Mike Cottam/ & Steve Reed 328pts.

On April 2nd the ladies played the County Prize (Bogey) Competetion.

Result: 1st Sandra Walker, 2nd Caroline Bond, 3rd Glenda Board.

Last Wednesday the ladies played a Stableford 'Bring and Win' – result: 1st Glenda Board, 2nd Helen Kenworthy and 3rd Lesley Crawford.

HONITON with Andy Wagner
Tuesday Mixed
THE American Foursomes was this week's format for the popular Tuesday Mixed Competition.

The winning pair, with 39points, were Elizabeth Ward & Phil Wall. In 2nd place with 36pts were Lesley Farley & Cyril Dann. 3rd place went to Linda Northover & Richard Pyle with 34pts this was on c/b from Sue Ritchie & Laurie Tollemache.

Ladies Section
THE sun was shining, we had no rain and no wind to speak of, but in the April Medal competition this week many of us suffered a very long game, and it was Liz Rogers in Bronze 2 Division who showed us all how to play, scoring net 70 to get a well deserved 1st place. Di Wall was 2nd with a net 79.

Janet Hughes also managed to stay well ahead of the field coming 1st in Bronze 1 Division with a net 71.

Gill Johnson was 2nd with a net 74, and Linda Blundell was 3rd struggling in with net 82.

In the Silver Division it was Elizabeth Ward who stole 1st place with net 77, while Olwen Eaton was 2nd a point behind on net 78, and Sarah Loader 3rd with net 79.

This week's nine-hole Stableford was won by Jean Smith.

Away day missions ahead for improving Ax

AXMINSTER Town extended their unbeaten home record to four matches with a 1-1 draw against Newton Abbot Spurs on Saturday.

A clever 40-yard lob from Jonny Hurford earned the Tigers a useful point at Colyton Grammar School ahead of Sunday's Axminster Hospital cup quarter-final at Colyton when a Leo Maguire strike secured a semi-final spot in a 1-0 victory.

Axminster have a busy week ahead with three away games in six days. First up is tonight's trip to Foxhayes to face Exwick Villa (6.30ko).

On Friday Gary Macauley's troops travel to Teignmouth before a third road trip to Appledore on Monday.

SIDMOUTH Town ran third placed Stoke Gabriel close in a South-West peninsula League Division One (east) encounter down in South Devon that saw both sides finish the match with 10 men.

two red cards

The hosts took an early lead through Dave Worthington but Andy Isaac leveled on the quarter-hour with a neat lob.

Stoke then had a man sent-off five minutes before the interval and The Vikings capitalized when Aaron Doble netted with a crisp low drive.

The hosts responded and Worthington struck again to bring the score back to 2-2 before Doble was red-carded for an off the ball incident.

Worthington then completed his hat-trick as Stoke grabbed all three points with a late winner.

Sidmouth manager Paddy Thomas said on the club's website:" Losing is difficult to accept at times especially when the squad don't apply themselves.

"Today was the total opposite as all 13 players plus "lino" Kev Trivett represented the club in an admirable fashion.

"We were resolute, we kept in the game and deserved a point. Days like today restores my faith in the game.

"People look and see we lost again but these players are pushing themselves against some of Devon's finest when it would be easier to drop down a couple levels and be a big fish in a small pond."

Next up for the Vikings is Saturday's visit by Budleigh Salterton.
